

“WE MUST NAME THE SYSTEM”

A Public Reenactment Of A Historic Speech By

PAUL POTTER

Former President of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS)

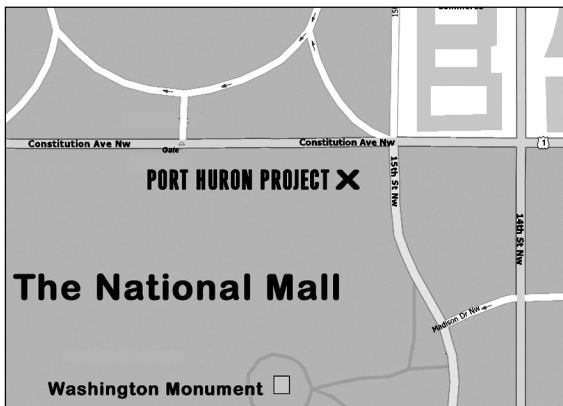

The third event of the PORT HURON PROJECT, a series of reenactments organized by artist Mark Tribe

TODAY!

July 26, 2007, 6:00 PM

The National Mall near the intersecion of Constitution Avenue and 15th Street

The Port Huron Project is a series of reenactments of protest speeches from the New Left movements of the 1960s and '70s. Each performance takes place at the site of the original speech, and is delivered to an audience of invited guests and passers-by. Videos of these performances are screened at galleries and festivals and distributed as open-source media. The project is named after the Port Huron Statement, the visionary manifesto of the SDS. More info: www.porthuronproject.net